

ALABAMA REPORTER,
IS PUBLISHED
EVERY THURSDAY MORNING
BY
T. J. CROSS & M. H. CRUIKSHANK
PROPRIETORS.

TERMS:

In advance, per annum $20 00
If not paid strictly in advance 25 00

Single Copy, 50 cents, Cash.

ALL JOB WORK—CASH.

ALABAMA REPORTER.

THURSDAY MORNING, March 20.

MR. THOS. S. SMITH of Sylacauga, is my authorized agent during my absence from the country.

Feb. 18th 1862. L. S. WHITE

Death of Maj. Samuel L. Knox.

We were favored with the news of a letter from Dr. J. C. Hamilton, Surgeon of the 1st Ala. Inf'y, to Dr. J. C. Knox, in relation to the death of his son Maj. S. L. Knox, of that regiment.

Maj. Knox volunteered in the Talladega Reg't., shortly after the commencement; that company was transferred to the 1st Ala. Reg't., which was stationed at Pensacola 12 months, and since that time has been in active service in various parts of the Confederacy.

Maj. Knox was severely wounded at Franklin, Tenn., on the 15th of December, 1861, and died on the 22d of December '62.

Maj. Knox was a very promising young man, of five talents; he was a gallant, brave, and daring officer.

In his Hamilton in closing this letter, says that as much as I regret, I am obliged to believe that an officer, universally beloved and respected, not only in his own Regiment, but in the Brigade, and the whole Division, has been cut off in a career of usefulness to his country, and to glory to himself. I beg leave, to offer my sincere sympathies to yourself and family, and all his friends, in this greatest loss; and I can truly express the feelings of not only myself, but of the whole command, who have been so long and so loyally connected with their beloved command, and friend, Major Samuel L. Knox.

We understand the Michael Tad, 7th of Marchville, was thrown into his last week, and had his leg broken, and was otherwise injured. The wounds, though quite severe, are not dangerous.—

We hope that Mr. Tad will soon recover.

We understand that Mr. Haxton Conrad, in his 40th year, was severely injured Saturday evening last. While walking, he was seen to trip, his wife instantly bled him to bed, but it was found that he was dead when removed from the table. Mr. Conner was an old man of 70 in this country, respected by all who knew him. He was perhaps 80 years of age.

We regret to learn that friend W.
D. Mosley, son of Dr. R. A. Mosley of this place, was killed at Mobile a few days since. Eight Mosley was a member of Verchuck's Battalion of State troops.
He was a strong man of promise. A good officer and soldier. We have not heard the particulars of his death.

Mr. W. B. Barbier will be at Columbiana on the 8d of April. See his card.

See the advertisement of Maj.
W. B. Barbier in today's paper.—

Maj. W. B. Barbier, according to information from Gen. Micks, has established a camp at M. McGowen.

Messrs. Entomists: Will you please publish the prospectus of a meeting held at First Church in Hrabine,
the 1st of this month, by Captains
Herrick, Odum, and Stewart's County Reserves. It required but little time, and little trouble, to gather these men, who had been called together for the purpose of arresting deserters; that something should be done to relieve the suffering condition of the women and children of that country, thereby removing the grand cause of desertion from that army. These women, say that they have been troubled by the estimate of our country at various times, in order that their husbands and sons might remain at the front, battling for our country. And to our mortification and shame, we find some families without even bread enough in their houses, to satisfy the hunger of their little children. There is not a doubt, but that these families, and their wives, are contributing to the gross neglect of our citizens, to supply subsidiary families with the necessities of life. Col. Averett being called to the chair, explained the object of the meeting in a very pointed and practical
manner; taking his part of the
responsibility, for the suffering condition of these families; and, that from
personal observations, he found
that measures could be adopted to secure a competency of money to supply a partial transportation of corn, salt,
etc., to different parts of the country
from the Railroad; that the scarcity
of stock and wagons forced these
families to give half of their corn
furnished by the country, to have the
other half hauled to them. Dr.
Brooks being called upon, delivered
one or two eloquent and patriotic

Alabama Reporter.

BY CROSS & CRUIKSHANK.]

JUSTITIA ET VERITAS.

[Twenty Dollars in Advance.

VOLUME XXII.

TALLADEGA, ALA., THURSDAY, MARCH 30, 1862.

NO. 13.

speeches, that we so often heard in '61 & '62; in which our beloved commanding officers, offering every inducement to children inspiring the men with renewed ardor, and determination, to die rather than submit to the Lincoln government. When appealing to the men to do their duty, in looking after the wants of our soldiers' families, you could have seen the tears trickling down the cheeks of men who had been absent from their commands for more than two years. Col. Odum and Parson Goode also made every effort to recruit the ranks, notwithstanding Adj't Gen. had been sent. Upon motion of J. A. Curry, a committee of three consisting of W. H. Hendrick, G. H. Huey, John Odum, Wm. Stone, Den. Averett, A. Cunningham, E. Russell, Geo. Wilson, J. A. Curry, Isaac Stone, G. P. Plowman, J. N. Savyer, M. H. Thompson, Jno. H. Townsend and J. C. Henderson were appointed to solicit subscriptions, and to go to the market to purchase teams and wagons, to be used for the benefit of soldiers' families, of our country. Said committee also be empowered to make any purchases and sales of stock and wagons that they may deem expedient. Upon motion of W. H. Hendrick, it was resolved that the proceedings of the meeting be published in our county papers. The following amounts were subscribed, and paid over to the Treasurer.

ANDREW CUNNINGHAM: $1000

James G. H. Huey 1000

F. M. Thompson 1000

W. M. B. B. 1000

J. L. Eustis 2000

J. W. Lawler 2000

Alex. C. Jones 1000

John J. Hendrick 1000

Isaac Stone 500

J. A. Curry 500

S. S. Booth 500

Jas. C. Burt 250

G. S. Wadell 250

Jas. Headen 200

J. N. Wells 200

W. W. Kidd 200

A. S. Rowe 100

Emily Russell 100

Clarke Carter 100

W. H. Houston 100

Harris Russell 100

W. H. Sims 100

S. D. Watson 100

Mrs. Margaret F. Shelley 50

Mrs. H. M. Shelly 50

D. J. Eustis 50

C. P. Prewitt 30

Alex. Prewitt 30

F. M. McMillan 30

J. J. Mitchell 25

J. H. Townsend 25

G. W. Powell 25

A. Rainwater 20

J. M. Skaggs 20

Henry Sims 20

J. W. W. W. 20

R. M. Headen 20

Joe Turner 20

Wm. Headen 20

W. C. Brewer 10

Gordon Myatt 10

A. Wilson 10

A. J. Richey 10

Wm. Glazier 10

Wm. Walker 10

B. Caldwell 10

Jerry Collins 10

J. A. Harrel 10

J. A. Mabius 10

W. R. Roberts 5

M. Mauden 5

A. Friend in cash 5

B. S. Stewart 5

A. McClung 5

A. Golden 5

J. H. Hogan 5

John Savage of J. W. Boswell 6

Total $14,478.

Honor to the Brave.

Died in Hospital at Mobile, Decr.

24, 1864, Corporal John C. MILAN,

of Co. G, 42d Reg't. Alab. Inf'y.—

John was a good soldier.

Enlisting at the early age of seventeen, yea rs playing at all times the characteristics of a veteran. Brave, patient, obedient—always at his post.

At the siege of Vicksburg, fought at Montgomery Ridge, at least

John was foremost among the bravest of the brave.

Previous to his last sickness, he was very attentive to those religious rites which are fitting preparation for eternity. Serious, prayerful and much given to Biblical reading, even in the duties under the fire of arm'd enemies. His death was sudden, and unforeseen.

Col. Averett being called to the chair, explained the object of the

meeting in a very pointed and practical

manner; taking his part of the

responsibility, for the suffering condition of these families; and, that from

personal observations, he found

that measures could be adopted to

secure a competency of money to supply a partial transportation of corn, salt,

etc., to different parts of the country

from the Railroad; that the scarcity

of stock and wagons forced these

families to give half of their corn

furnished by the country, to have the

other half hauled to them. Dr.

Brooks being called upon, delivered

one or two eloquent and patriotic

From the Charlotte Bulletin.]

Correspondence Between Gen. Sherman and Gen. Hampton.

Hanover, Md.—Dr. H. H. Moore, Feb. 24, 1862.

Gen. Wm. H. Hampton, Commanding
Cavalry Forces, C. S. A.:

Gen. Sherman: It is officially reported to me that our foraging parties are murdered after capture, and labelled "Death to all Foragers." One instance of a lieutenant and seven men near Chesapeake, and another of twenty "near a ravine," eighty rods from the main road, about three miles from Fensterle. I have received a similar notice of prisoners in our hands to be disposed of in like manner.

I hold about 1000 prisoners captured in various ways, and can't say as I am, but I hardly think these murders are committed with your knowledge —and would suggest that you give notice to the people at large to every like to them simply results in the death of one of your Confederates.

Of course, you cannot question my right to forage on the country. It is as right as old as history. The manner of exercising it varies with circumstances, and if the civil authorities will supply me, I will forbear all foraging.

But I find no civil authorities who can respond to calls for forage or provisions, and therefore must make do with the people of the country.

I have no doubt this is the occasion of much misunderstanding between us.

Yester evening, I sent a circular to the

people of the country, to the effect

that we would not be responsible for

any damages we might inflict.

Yester evening, I sent a circular to the

people of the country, to the effect

that we would not be responsible for

any damages we might inflict.

Yester evening, I sent a circular to the

people of the country, to the effect

that we would not be responsible for

any damages we might inflict.

Yester evening, I sent a circular to the

people of the country, to the effect

that we would not be responsible for

any damages we might inflict.

Yester evening, I sent a circular to the

people of the country, to the effect

that we would not be responsible for

any damages we might inflict.

Yester evening, I sent a circular to the

people of the country, to the effect

that we would not be responsible for

any damages we might inflict.

Yester evening, I sent a circular to the

people of the country, to the effect

that we would not be responsible for

any damages we might inflict.

Yester evening, I sent a circular to the

people of the country, to the effect

that we would not be responsible for

any damages we might inflict.

Yester evening, I sent a circular to the

people of the country, to the effect

that we would not be responsible for

any damages we might inflict.

Yester evening, I sent a circular to the

people of the country, to the effect

that we would not be responsible for

any damages we might inflict.

Yester evening, I sent a circular to the

people of the country, to the effect

that we would not be responsible for

any damages we might inflict.

Yester evening, I sent a circular to the

people of the country, to the effect

that we would not be responsible for

any damages we might inflict.

Yester evening, I sent a circular to the

people of the country, to the effect

that we would not be responsible for

any damages we might inflict.

Yester evening, I sent a circular to the

people of the country, to the effect

that we would not be responsible for

any damages we might inflict.

Yester evening, I sent a circular to the

people of the country, to the effect

that we would not be responsible for

any damages we might inflict.

Yester evening, I sent a circular to the

people of the country, to the effect

that we would not be responsible for

any damages we might inflict.

Yester evening, I sent a circular to the

people of the country, to the effect

that we would not be responsible for

any damages we might inflict.

Yester evening, I sent a circular to the

people of the country, to the effect

that we would not be responsible for

any damages we might inflict.

Yester evening, I sent a circular to the

people of the country, to the effect

that we would not be responsible for

any damages we might inflict.

Yester evening, I sent a circular to the

people of the country, to the effect

that we would not be responsible for

any damages we might inflict.

Yester evening, I sent a circular to the

people of the country, to the effect

that we would not be responsible for

any damages we might inflict.

Yester evening, I sent a circular to the

people of the country, to the effect

that we would not be responsible for

any damages we might inflict.

Yester evening, I sent a circular to the

people of the country, to the effect

that we would not be responsible for

any damages we might inflict.

Yester evening, I sent a circular to the

people of the country, to the effect

that we would not be responsible for

any damages we might inflict.

Yester evening, I sent a circular to the

people of the country, to the effect

that we would not be responsible for

any damages we might inflict.</